

TELECOMMUNICATION AND BUILDING ACCESS LICENSE – NEW BUILDINGS

This License is made as of the date last signed by both parties below (the "Effective Date").

In consideration of the mutual rights and obligations herein expressed, the sum of $2.00 paid by each party to the other and other good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged) Bell Canada and Springside Garden Estates Corp. (the "Owner") agree as follows:

1. Owner hereby grants to Bell Canada and the affiliates of BCE Inc. (as defined in the Canada Business Corporations Act, as amended) (hereinafter, collectively referred to as "Bell") at no cost or charge to Bell, a non-exclusive right and license to (i) enter on and gain access in, on, over or under the multi-unit dwelling building to be constructed by the Owner as described in Schedule "A" (the "Building"), the common elements and other common areas of the Building and the lands upon which the Building is located (the "Lands"), save and except residential dwelling units and exclusive use common areas (ii) use in-building wire or cabling owned or controlled by Bell, the Owner or any third party wire as mandated by the CRTC and (iii) make available and provide telecommunications and other communication services subject to CRTC rulings from time to time, (collectively the "Bell Services") to local exchange carriers, prospective purchasers and the owners, tenants, invitees or residents of the Building (the "Occupant(s)"). Nothing in this License shall be construed or interpreted as granting Bell any exclusive rights or privileges in or to the Building, relating to access or installation rights, to the exclusion of any other third parties.

2. The non-exclusive right and license in Section 1 includes Bell's right to construct, install, test, operate, maintain, repair, service, upgrade, modify, remove and replace its Equipment (as defined below) in, on, over or under the Building. "Equipment" includes any Bell equipment, in-building wire (as defined by the CRTC in Decision 99-10), infrastructure or otherwise, which is necessary and incidental to enable and deliver Bell Services to Occupants. Nothing herein limits Bell's ability to change, alter or replace the Equipment with new or different equipment to provision the Bell Services. Equipment excludes: conduit, individual receiver - decoders, whether VDSL or otherwise, or any other equipment that can be individually addressed either electronically or manually by Bell (each an "IRD"), which will be sold or rented to Occupants by Bell or any other authorized sales agent.

3. Bell and those for whom it is responsible for in law shall be permitted to use and access all portions of the Building necessary for the provision of Bell Services and for the matters as provided in Section I in accordance with the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules of the Owner. Except in the case of emergencies, all rights of non-exclusive access granted and uses permitted herein shall be available to Bell during normal business hours, three-hundred and sixty-five (365) days per year subject to Bell providing reasonable notice to the Owner or its agent of its intention to enter the Building for the purposes of this License.

4. The term of this License is effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue to run for a period often (10) years from the Effective Date (the "Term"). Bell shall execute and deliver promptly upon request by the Owner, and without charge, any reasonable acknowledgement, release, consent or status statement in respect of this License and any easement or right-of-way registered on title as may be required to permit the registration of a declaration and description on all or any part of the Building. Subject to the provisions of the Condominium Act, 1998, as amended, upon registration of a condominium plan in respect of the Building (the "Corporation") prior to the expiry of the Term, the Owner shall, upon such registration, be immediately released from its obligations under this License (save and except for any outstanding obligations arising hereunder prior to such registration) and any easement or right-of-way registered on title upon the registration of a declaration and description on all or any part of the Building whereupon the Corporation shall assume and be bound by all the rights and obligations of the Owner as set out herein and shall be responsible for such obligations, and shall for the purposes of this License and any easement or right-of-way registered on title, be henceforth the "Owner". Unless a Party provides the other party hereto with written notice of its intention not to renew this License at least one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the Term or Renewal Term (as defined below), this License shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year renewal terms (the "Renewal Term") on the terms and conditions herein. Either Party may terminate this License: i) for a material breach hereof, where such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days of receipt of written notice by the other party of such breach, or ii) immediately, in the event of bankruptcy, reorganization, assignment, petition or appointment of a trustee or such other act of insolvency of the other party. Upon termination by either party of this Agreement the parties shall be released from all of their obligations herein in full satisfaction of all claims whatsoever. If the action of a governmental agency requires modification of Bell's Services or the terms in which they are provided which is inconsistent with the terms of this License or impairs Bell's ability to provide Bell's Services in an economical and technically practical fashion, Bell may terminate this License upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Owner. Upon expiry or termination of this License, Bell shall be allowed thirty (30) days to remove the Bell Equipment at its sole cost and expense if Bell exercises such right to remove the Bell Equipment and shall promptly repair the Building, Lands and Equipment Spaces(s) to their state immediately prior to such removal.

To the extent applicable, Owner agrees to grant to Bell a non-exclusive, non-preferential easement and statutory right of way, on a form approved by the Owner's solicitor, acting reasonably, and/or a path to the property line from the Building, as the case may be and in or through the Equipment Space if it is determined that a fibre optic cable or such other Equipment must be installed to the Building and/or in the Equipment Space. Owner and Bell shall in advance, both acting reasonably and in good faith, agree upon a suitable location to install the fibre optic cable on the property of the Owner. Owner agrees to allow Bell to register prior to the creation of a condominium on the Building and/or the Lands, and only if requested by Bell prior to creation of the condominium on the Building and/or the Lands, at Bell's expense, the non-exclusive, non-preferential easement and right of way, and/or notice of this License.

Provided that Bell's rights hereunder are not materially adversely affected, Bell agrees to forthwith release or partially release this License and all easements and rights-of-way in relation to same and as referred to herein and any other rights herein granted as to all or any part of the Building and/or the Lands which are

- or will be transferred to the applicable municipal authority and to execute, forthwith at no cost to the Owner, such documentation necessary to release this License and all easements and rights-of-way in relation to same and as referred to herein and any other rights herein granted from those portions of the Building and/or the Lands which are or will be transferred to such municipality.

Provided that Bell's rights hereunder are not materially adversely affected Bell and the Owner acknowledge and agree that upon the registration of a declaration and description pursuant to the Condominium Act, 1998, as amended, against (or in respect of) the Building and/or the Lands (or any portion thereof), this License and all easements and rights-of-way in relation to same and as referred to herein are hereby released against all of the residential units and any other units as described in the declaration and description and those portions of the common elements appurtenant to such residential units and other units designated as exclusive use common elements (if applicable), and all of the other lands subject to this License and all easements and rights-of-way in relation to same and as referred to herein (collectively the "Additional Development Lands"), which are not included in the declaration and description to be registered on the Building and/or the Lands, and within ten (10) days of Bell being provided with evidence of the particulars of the registration of the declaration and description Bell shall, without payment, forthwith deliver a release and abandonment of this License and all easements and rights-of-way in relation to same and as referred to herein as they apply to the Additional Development Lands.

Bell agrees, forthwith upon request and at no cost to the Owner, to postpone and subordinate this License and any easement or right-of-way registered on title to any mortgagee or chargee, financing or refinancing of the Building and/or the Lands and to any development agreement in relation to the lands, provided that Owner has taken reasonable measures to protect Bell's rights hereunder, including without limitation, the ability to provide the Bell Services to the Building.

5. Bell shall, at its own cost (i) ensure that all Equipment is installed in accordance with all relevant laws, by-laws, including but not limited to fire and building code requirements in force at the time of installation, and (ii) be responsible for the provision, installation, maintenance and repair of the Equipment installed by Bell during the Term, although each individual Occupant may incur charges (at Bell's then applicable rates) relating to post-installation activities specific to such Occupant's in-suite requirements. Except as otherwise provided in Section 22 of the Condominium Act, 1998, the Equipment will remain the property of Bell at all times, and will not become a fixture despite any legal principle to the contrary. Owner agrees that it has no legal or equitable ownership interest in Bell's equipment nor any of Bell owned items reasonably contemplated herein and shall not make any claim to the contrary.

6. Owner agrees to provide to Bell, at no charge to Bell, access to and use of, one room or other segregated, enclosed space in, on, over or under the Building (the "Equipment Space(s)"), to house and/or to store the Equipment, provided such Equipment Space shall be subject to the specifications set forth in Schedule "B" hereto. Owner agrees that the non-exclusive access rights herein include a non-exclusive right to access the Equipment Space in the Building. The Equipment Space shall have adequate power supply and adequate natural or artificial ventilation. Nothing in this License limits the Owner's right to repair any common elements of the Building; provided that where any such repair may affect Bell's Equipment, the Owner shall: (i) provide Bell with reasonable advance written notice to request Bell to adjust and/or move its Equipment before the repairs are made and which notice shall contain necessary particulars to permit Bell to comment as provided for in item (ii); and (ii) provide Bell with an opportunity to recommend changes to the planned nature, timing commencement, duration or completion of such repairs or such other matter in respect of the repairs that could have and impact on the Equipment or Bell's ability to deliver the Bell Services. Despite the foregoing, where repairs undertaken by the Owner require Bell to move or relocate any of its Equipment, Bell shall, at its sole option: (A) provide one Bell technician for a maximum of one eight (8) hour period; or (B) pay for 50% of costs to facilitate the movement or relocation of Bell's Equipment as required by the Owner. Where the time or costs to Bell exceed the foregoing, Bell may terminate this License by providing the Owner with one (1) month written notice without any further charges, liabilities or penalties to either party hereto

7. Each party represents and warrants that: (1) it has full right, power and authority to enter into and perform its covenants and obligations in this License; (2) it is under no obligation, statutory, contractual or otherwise, which could prevent or interfere with the complete performance of its covenants and obligations herein; (3) it is validly organized and existing under the name indicated on this License; and (4) no condominium rule or by-law is in force that would prevent or limit Bell from entering into this License. Bell further covenants to repair, at its sole expense, any damage to the Building or the Equipment Space where the damage is caused by Bell and those for whom it is responsible in law.

8. Despite anything contained herein to the contrary, Bell Canada will be liable for and will indemnify and save harmless the Owner, its directors, officers, employees, and contractors, and those for whom it is responsible in law (collectively, the "Owner Indemnitees"), from and against any and all losses, suits, actions, causes of action, proceedings, damages, costs, claims and expenses (collectively, the "Losses") arising from physical damage to any tangible property or bodily injury, including death, to any person caused by or arising out of any negligent act or wilful misconduct or omission relating to Bell Canada's use and occupation of the Equipment Space or the Building, provided that Bell Canada will not be required to indemnify the Owner Indemnitees to the extent any such Losses are caused by any negligent act or wilful misconduct or omission of any of the Owner Indemnitees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will either party be liable for or indemnify and save harmless the other party or any of its directors, officers, employees, and contractors, and those for whom it is responsible in law from and against any indirect, incidental or consequential damages, including loss of revenue, loss of profits, loss of business opportunity or loss of use of any facilities or property, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. This Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this License.

9. Unless a Party provides the other party hereto with written notice of its intention not to renew this License at least one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the Term or Renewal Term (as defined below), this License shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year renewal terms (the "Renewal Term") on the terms and conditions herein. Either Party may terminate this License: i) for a material breach hereof, where such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days of receipt of written notice by the other party of such breach, or ii) immediately, in the event of bankruptcy, reorganization, assignment, petition or appointment of a trustee or such other act of insolvency of the other party. Upon expiry or termination of this License, Bell shall be allowed thirty (30) days to remove the Equipment.

10. This License is subject to all applicable federal, provincial and local laws, and regulations, rulings and orders of governmental agencies, including, but not limited to, the Telecommunications Act, the Broadcasting Act, as amended or the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications Commission

(the "CRTC"). If the action of a governmental agency requires modification of Bell's Services or the terms in which they are provided which is inconsistent with the terms of this License or impairs Bell's ability to provide Bell's Services in a economical and technically practical fashion, Bell may terminate this License upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Owner.

12. Where a provision of this License conflicts with a Schedule attached hereto, the provision of this License shall prevail. This License and Schedules will be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the applicable laws of Canada therein, excluding any conflict of laws rule or principle which might refer such construction to the laws of another jurisdiction. Except as provided for Section 4 above, none of the rights and obligations contained herein may be assigned or transferred by Owner, without the prior written consent of Bell.

13. This License and the Marketing Agreement - New Buildings dated November 28, 2008 constitute the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings on the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 7, neither party makes any representation or warranty express or implied, statutory or otherwise to the other. If any provision of this License is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the other provisions of this License shall not be affected or impaired, and the offending provision shall automatically be modified to the least extent necessary in order to be valid, legal and enforceable.

In witness thereof the parties through their duly authorized representatives have executed this License as of the Effective Date.
