Licensee's Financing

10.4 The Licensee may, without the consent of, but on prior written notice to, the Licensor, grant a security interest by way of a mortgage, charge, general security agreement or otherwise over the Licence or the POP Equipment or other movable installations made by Licensee (but not covering any part of the Building or any leasehold improvements) to a lender. The Licensee will not cause or permit such charge or any notice thereof to be registered at any land registry office or against title to the Building or the Lands, it being acknowledged and agreed that the License does not convey a leasehold interest in favour of the Licensee nor any mortgagee, if applicable.
